BIDDERS CHECKLIST

When preparing a bid, here is a handy reference to make sure you haven't overlooked something which could disqualify your bid.

- 1. Have you thoroughly read the solicitation and understand it?
- 2. Have you conformed to all necessary specifications and standards?
- 3. Have you acknowledged all amendments?
- 4. If any bonding is required, is it included or has it been obtained?
- 5. Have you carefully entered your pricing information?
(Lump sum or per item as specified in the bid)
- 6. Are your figures legible?
- 7. Is your offer for delivery in exact accordance with that required in the bid?
- 8. Have you properly completed the "Representations, Certifications and Acknowledgements"?
- 9. If you have any discounts, have they been stated correctly?
- 10. Is the person who signed the bid authorized to do so?
- 11. Have you properly identified your envelope to ensure it reaching the buyer by bid opening?
- 12. Will your bid arrive on time? It is your responsibility to ensure this!

This is a very general list of items you need to double check. It is not all inclusive and it is important to remember to complete and use care in the preparation of your bids. Mistakes can cost you money!!

Condition for Sale

- 1) No guarantees or warranties are given by the government for the items.
- 2) Major defects, if known, are listed, but the government makes no claim that all defects are known.
- 3) No sale will be invalid if defects are discovered in the item after the sale.
- 4) The government assumes no responsibility once the items are sold.
