 Center for Living Independently in the CNMI

Service Description:

CLI provides 5 core services which are Advocacy, Independent Living Skills Training, Transition, Peer Counseling, Information & Referral.

Advocacy: CLI-CNMI is thoroughly knowledgeable in meeting the needs of individuals with disabilities, as they, too, share the same needs. CLI-CNMI supports local advocacy organizations in breaking down physical, economic, and social barriers by educating and training others by the Independent Living concept.

Transition: CLI-CNMI provides resources that allow for the possible transition from education to employment. Through the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act, individuals and the youth with disabilities can acquire skills and training that is necessary to enter competitive and integrated employment.

Independent Living Skill Training: CLI-CNMI's newly-completed office and model home provides instruction on daily living skills for individuals with significant disabilities. Skills that include: arts & crafts, gardening, household management, shopping, transportation, interpersonal relationships, yard maintenance, simple meal preparations, and more. Instruction is contingent on consumer interest and availability of materials, as well as teachers.

Peer Counseling: The CNMI-Independent Living Group (ILG) is an advocacy/peer group of the CLI-CNMI, which is available to anyone in need of its counseling services. The group participates in numerous fundraisers and goodwill events sponsored throughout the community. The ILG conducts fundraisers on their own behalf through hot lunch sales, special occasion gift baskets, baseball tournaments, and recreational bingo. In addition, ILG actively supports the rights of individuals with disabilities by providing resources available at the CLI-CNMI center.

Service Description:	Information & Referral: CLI-CNMI collects, distributes and refers resources based on information gathered on programs available in the CNMI for individuals with disabilities. Through consistent communication and regular attendance of the scheduled meetings, the Executive Director stays appraised on the current resources offered by the organizations and providers. Information is available through pamphlets, phone inquiry, media, and in person at the CLI-CNMI's office located in Capitol Hill.
Mission:	To ensure the rights of people with disabilities to live independently and fully integrated within the community.
Vision:	That the CLI-CNMI will provide a comprehensive range of services which will make it possible for the people with disabilities to live as independently as they choose within the community.
Age Group:	18 years and above
Eligibility:	An individual with a disability with the desire to live independently.

Service Description:

The CNMI Council on Developmental Disabilities is established under local statute P.L. 12-10 and federal law (Public Law 106-402). Our Council is a federally funded, self-governing organization charged with identifying the most pressing needs of people with developmental disabilities in our territory. Councils are committed to advancing public policy and systems change that help these individuals gain more control over their lives. There are 56 Councils across the United States and its territories; we work to address identified needs by conducting advocacy, systems of change, and capacity building efforts that promote self-determination, integration, and inclusion.

The Council comprises 25 Governor-appointed volunteer members, including people with developmental disabilities, family members, and representatives of public agencies and private organizations that serve people with disabilities.

The Council does not provide direct services. The Council's work revolves around advocacy and system change initiatives that improves the quality of lives of individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities and their families.

What the Council does: key activities include conducting outreach, providing training and technical assistance, removing barriers, developing coalitions, encouraging citizen participation, and keeping policy makers informed about disability issues.

Mission:	It is the mission of the CNMI Council of Developmental Disabilities to bring about necessary systemic change in order to promote the lives of persons with developmental disabilities. This will assure that the service network is providing persons with developmental disabilities the programs necessary to enable them to achieve their maximum potential.
Vision:	People with developmental disabilities will have the opportunity to make choices about where and with whom they live, about the kinds of work and activities they do, and about the services and supports they want and need and where they are provided. They will have control over their own lives.

Service Description:

The Transitional Living Center (TLC) under the direct supervision of the Community Guidance Center (CGC) was designed to provide structured programs for individuals 18 years and older with serious mental illness who do not require inpatient hospital care. TLC offers a range of programs and rehabilitation services, including but not limited to: Illness Management and Recovery (IMR); Medication Management; and Activities of Daily Living Skills (ADLS), for those with mental illness and those with disabilities to help them achieve independence and become integrated back into their community. TLC assists people in their path to recovery by offering opportunities in a safe and supportive environment to address challenges and cultivate the skills and resources that will promote successful community living and enhanced quality of life.

(NOTE: Program activities are based on each client’s individual needs identified from multidisciplinary assessment completed prior to each client entering the program.)

Mission:

CGC partners with CNMI individuals, families, and communities towards a life of hope, healing, and health through substance abuse prevention and the promotion of wellness and recovery.

Vision:

That all CNMI residents fully integrate behavioral health and wellness in safe, resilient, drug-free homes and communities.

CHCC Community Guidance Center

@cnmi.chcc.cgc

Service Description:

Discovery Course: This course is a psychoeducational group that covers basic substance abuse topics from a Cognitive Behavioral perspective. The group is designed to educate clients about substance abuse, and related behaviors and consequences. Participants gain knowledge, life skills, and strengthening resources that will help them establish and maintain abstinence and guide them to more productive choices in their lives.

Anger Management: This 10-week Anger Management course helps consumers develop the skills necessary to successfully manage anger. Participants will learn and understand about the core concepts of anger and how this relates to their emotions and behavior. As concepts and skills presented in anger management treatment are best learned by practice, a strong component of the course utilizes homework assignments from the workbook.

Matrix Program: The Matrix Program is an intensive outpatient treatment approach for individuals with substance use disorders. This evidence-based program was developed through 30 years of experience in real-world treatment settings. The intervention integrates aspects of several treatment approaches, including cognitive-behavioral therapy, contingency management, motivational interviewing, 12-step facilitation, family involvement, and supportive/person-centered therapy.

The core components of the Matrix consist of the following groups: Early Recovery Group, Relapse-Prevention Group, Family Education, and Social Support Group. Additionally, individual counseling is delivered over a 16-week period. Clients learn about issues critical to addiction and relapse, such as cue-induced craving and related behaviors. Clients also receive direction and support from a trained therapist, become familiar with self-help programs, and are monitored for drug use by urine and breath testing. Family members receive education to help understand and support the recovery process.

Service Description:

CLI provides 5 core services which are Advocacy, Independent Living Skills Training, Transition, Peer Counseling, Information & Referral.

Advocacy: CLI-CNMI is thoroughly knowledgeable in meeting the needs of individuals with disabilities, as they, too, share the same needs. CLI-CNMI supports local advocacy organizations in breaking down physical, economic, and social barriers by educating and training others by the Independent Living concept.

Transition: CLI-CNMI provides resources that allow for the possible transition from education to employment. Through the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act, individuals and the youth with disabilities can acquire skills and training that is necessary to enter competitive and integrated employment.

Independent Living Skill Training: CLI-CNMI's newly-completed office and model home provides instruction on daily living skills for individuals with significant disabilities. Skills that include: arts & crafts, gardening, household management, shopping, transportation, interpersonal relationships, yard maintenance, simple meal preparations, and more. Instruction is contingent on consumer interest and availability of materials, as well as teachers.

Service Description:

What is an Assistive Technology (AT) Device?

Any item, piece of equipment, or product system, whether acquired commercially off the shelf, modified or customized, that is used to increase, maintain, or improve functionality capabilities of individuals with disabilities.

What is an Assistive Technology (AT) Service?

An assistive technology service is “any service that directly assists a person with a disability in the selection, acquisition, or use of an assistive technology device.”

What do families need to know about AT?

Assistive Technology can help people at any age in all aspects of their lives: at home, at work, and in the community. The use of technology can help young children to maintain typical development. It can be used to help promote inclusion in the regular education environment, and it can assist adults in being successfully employed. AT can also help enhance communication and can help increase independence and assist individuals to live more self-determined lives. Resources are available through Medicaid, Medicare, Private Insurance, and other sources to pay for assistive technology.

CNMI Assistive Technology Program provides support and services to people of all ages and abilities throughout the CNMI. We work closely with family members, teachers, medical & therapeutic professionals, schools, businesses, government agencies and vendors to better help them serve the needs of individuals with disabilities.

 CNMI Public School System

Service Description:

Special Education, as defined by the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) is specially designed instruction, at no cost to the parents, to meet the unique needs of children with disabilities. Special Education is not a “place” for children with disabilities; it is a system of supports and services provided to a child in order for the child to have access to and benefit from the educational curriculum in the school they would go to if they did not have a disability.

NOTE: You may also communicate with your child’s school for more information on eligibility and services.

Mission:

To offer equal education opportunity for all students by providing optimum curriculum, instruction, community service, and work experience in academic and career – technical education so that they become productive and contributing members of the Commonwealth and the global world;

To guarantee challenging, engaging, and intentional instruction to ensure curricular pathways to success by providing whole-child student support through the creation of high-performance school cultures and data driven “high-reliability” systems;

To plan, build, and maintain school facilities conducive to learning, safe, orderly, and accessible to all;

To establish effective communication and collaboration of all stakeholders for meaningful and productive partnership; and

To allocate financial and technical resources to meet the educational needs of all students.

Service Description:

The NMC–CREES Nutrition and Health (N&H) Program aims to provide unbiased, researched-based outreach and education to the community and to promote a better, healthier CNMI.

There are three programs under N&H:

1. Expanded Food and Nutrition Education Program (EFNEP):
 - EFNEP helps limited-resource families across Saipan, Tinian, and Rota achieve lifelong health and fitness through the Eating Smart, Being Active program, an evidence-based, 9-lesson, healthy eating and active living curriculum.
2. Children's Healthy Living Program (CHL):
 - CHL is a partnership among remote Pacific states and other remote jurisdictions of the US to build social/cultural, physical/built, and political/economic environments that will promote active play and intake of healthy food to prevent young child obesity in the Pacific Region.
 - CHL engages the community and focuses on capacity building and sustainable environmental change.
 - CHL strives to serve as a model for other regions with remote underserved native populations at risk for obesity.
3. Childhood Obesity Prevention Program (COPP):
 - COPP leverages relationships with key stakeholders to affect positive change in nutrition and health at the individual, group, and population levels.
 - COPP strives to make "the healthy choice, the easy or default choice" by focusing on access, availability, affordability, and acceptability in the food and built environments.
 - COPP also focuses on improving policies that encourage healthier behavior choices and building data systems to enhance our ability to understand childhood underweight, overweight, and obesity.

Service Description:

Disability Support Services Program: The Disability Support Services (DSS) Program works to assist students with permanent or temporary disabilities to receive reasonable accommodations in academic and non-academic programs that provide them with an equal opportunity to fully participate in all aspects of student life at NMI. The DSS Counselor works with each student to identify educational goals, provides accommodations as determined by documented need, connects students to various campus and community resources, and coordinates services for student support. The DSS Counselor also undertakes efforts to increase awareness among NMI staff, faculty, and students of disability-related issues.

For students with documented disabilities, accommodations are provided to give equal access to education. Accommodations vary based on individual need and may include: access to assistive technology, such as TTY, tape recorders, magnifiers, etc.; extended test time, separate testing site; note takers, readers, scribes, and tutors; American Sign Language interpretation; classroom relocation; instructional materials provided in alternate formats; and priority registration.

International Student Services Program: The mission of the International Student Services (ISS) is to support international student enrollment and academic success through program completion or transfer by providing for their identified needs in support of the Northern Marianas College Mission. ISS offers a wide variety of services to international students at NMC, such as admission assistance, advising and tutorial services, student employment, and student exchange programs. Additionally, the ISS staff provides information to international students about the campus and community and also provides support and assistance regarding visa and related immigration concerns.

 Northern Mariana Islands Judiciary

Service Description:

Pursuant to Public Law 9-51, a Family Court Division (FCD) was established within the Superior Court of the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands. The Family Court Division will have primary jurisdiction over all family legal matters, including the following subject matter:

- Adoption
- Alimony
- Annulment
- Change of Name
- Child Abuse
- Child Custody
- Child Support
- Child Visitation
- Civil Commitment (involving family members only)
- Criminal Domestic Violence
- Divorce
- Guardianship and Guardianship at Litem (except in Probate Case)
- Juvenile Delinquency
- Paternity
- Property Distribution upon Divorce or Annulment
- Temporary Restraining Order (TRO pursuant to the Family Protection Act)
- UCCJA (Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act)
- URESAs (Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act)
- Wardship

Mission:

As it is in other family courts across the nation, our mission is to protect children and families. The FCD protects the interest of the community by: correcting children who break the law, preserving and reforming families, and protecting children from abuse and neglect. The FCD ensures that when a family falters, legal and support services are rendered so that the family can once again thrive.

CNMI Superior Court – Family Court Division Cont.

Vision:

1. The FCD will operate in a proactive and sensitive manner servicing the needs of people and the justice system by working closely with CNMI service providers and leaders of the Commonwealth in the development of special programs for all families.
2. The FCD will make its services easily accessible to people who do not have attorneys by working closely with the CNMI Bar Association's Family Law Section and members of the bar to simplify petitions to gain access to the court and to work toward the implementation of a Family Court Mediation Center if authorized by the Legislature.
3. The FCD will offer support services to families needing assistance with the court process, as practicable, by training court staff on all islands on specific FCD areas such as the filing of TROs, paternity actions, and child support claims.
4. The FCD will implement reforms in the handling of juvenile matters by always ensuring the best interests of all children are protected. Moreover, the FCD will work with its service providers to provide excellent services so that children experiencing difficulties can become productive citizens of the Commonwealth.
5. The ideal traits of the FCD are:
 - A court that firmly adheres to legal principles and has resources available to correct, with minimal intervention, the problem that brought an individual before court.
 - A court that has broad substantive and geographic jurisdiction over family matters.
 - A court that has independent status with access to needed resources.
 - A court that has a clear chain of command across judicial and administrative areas.
 - Centralized location where all services can be accessed.
 - Centralized and organized filing system, which is accessible to all applicable personnel.
 - Long-term judicial appointments to ensure that specialized skills can be brought to bear on family court matters.
 - Status and facilities equal to the Commonwealth's other trial courts.
 - Localized operation so that uniformity of policy and practice may evolve.
 - Harmonized practices and procedures.
 - Provide excellent services with the goal of ensuring continuity of services and treatments.
 - Reducing administrative costs.
 - Elimination of duplication of services.
 - Improving supervision, training, and recruitment of staff.

Service Description:

The NMC–CREES Nutrition and Health (N&H) Program aims to provide unbiased, researched-based outreach and education to the community and to promote a better, healthier CNMI.

There are three programs under N&H:

1. Expanded Food and Nutrition Education Program (EFNEP):
 - EFNEP helps limited-resource families across Saipan, Tinian, and Rota achieve lifelong health and fitness through the Eating Smart, Being Active program, an evidence-based, 9-lesson, healthy eating and active living curriculum.
2. Children's Healthy Living Program (CHL):
 - CHL is a partnership among remote Pacific states and other remote jurisdictions of the US to build social/cultural, physical/built, and political/economic environments that will promote active play and intake of healthy food to prevent young child obesity in the Pacific Region.
 - CHL engages the community and focuses on capacity building and sustainable environmental change.
 - CHL strives to serve as a model for other regions with remote underserved native populations at risk for obesity.
3. Childhood Obesity Prevention Program (COPP):
 - COPP leverages relationships with key stakeholders to affect positive change in nutrition and health at the individual, group, and population levels.
 - COPP strives to make "the healthy choice, the easy or default choice" by focusing on access, availability, affordability, and acceptability in the food and built environments.
 - COPP also focuses on improving policies that encourage healthier behavior choices and building data systems to enhance our ability to understand childhood underweight, overweight, and obesity.

 Northern Marianas College

Service Description:

The NMC-CREES Family, Community and Youth Development (FCYD) program aims to build the capacity of the local youth, families, and community by establishing a network among governmental and non-governmental organizations to provide a positive environment that promotes volunteerism and teamwork while encouraging the youth, families and community to actively engage in shaping the future of the CNMI. The program provides community-specific and culturally-focused experiential learning opportunities that encourage personal development and build capacity amongst participants in order to foster a desire to learn, appreciate life, lead and meet their full potential.

Mission:

The NMC-CREES mission to be the leader in providing quality programs, services, and information in order to improve the CNMI's people, environment, and economy through agriculture, family and consumer sciences - is accomplished through a range of technical programs through its two divisions of Agriculture Research & Extension (ARE) and Family & Consumer Sciences (FCS). NMC-CREES' integrated approach amongst its two divisions encourages a multi-discipline and multi-level collaboration that promotes efficiency and strong communication among scientists and extension faculty. This team effort aims to address the National Goals identified by the United States Department of Agriculture.

Service Description:

The NMC-CREES Nutrition and Health (N&H) Program aims to provide unbiased, researched-based outreach and education to the community and to promote a better, healthier CNMI.

There are three programs under N&H:

1. Expanded Food and Nutrition Education Program (EFNEP):
 - EFNEP helps limited-resource families across Saipan, Tinian, and Rota achieve lifelong health and fitness through the Eating Smart, Being Active program, an evidence-based, 9-lesson, healthy eating and active living curriculum.
2. Children's Healthy Living Program (CHL):
 - CHL is a partnership among remote Pacific states and other remote jurisdictions of the US to build social/cultural, physical/built, and political/economic environments that will promote active play and intake of healthy food to prevent young child obesity in the Pacific Region.
 - CHL engages the community and focuses on capacity building and sustainable environmental change.
 - CHL strives to serve as a model for other regions with remote underserved native populations at risk for obesity.
3. Childhood Obesity Prevention Program (COPP):
 - COPP leverages relationships with key stakeholders to affect positive change in nutrition and health at the individual, group, and population levels.
 - COPP strives to make "the healthy choice, the easy or default choice" by focusing on access, availability, affordability, and acceptability in the food and built environments.
 - COPP also focuses on improving policies that encourage healthier behavior choices and building data systems to enhance our ability to understand childhood underweight, overweight, and obesity.
